A PRESIDENTIAL PROCLAMATION

Report of the South American Commission—Some Interesting Speculation Regarding an Appointment from Oregon.

WASHINGTON Aug 10—Maj William P Craighill has been placed on the retired list

The recent general army order sending officers back to their regiments after a period of duty in certain staff corps duties is provoking much discussion among officers in Washington But two officers now on duty here will be compelled to join their regiments at once They are Captains Gregory and Davis of Gen Sheridan's staff Capt Davis was recently assigned to staff service but has been on detached duty for a number of years Officers who favor the order say that favoritism is now ended, that officers will not be allowed to remain away from their command ten or fifteen years that capts as who have never seen line companies will have an opportunity to look at them and that men who have been on the frontier for almost a score of years will now be permitted to taste the sweets of army life That order said an officer to-day returns the resurrection of the army

THE WHITE HOUSE CLOSED

WASHINGTON Aug 10—The White house is now closed to visitors and will not be reopened until the President's return in September In the meantime the building will be overhauled and made as clean and comfortable as possible Considerable repairing will have to be done and several improvements in the internal arrangements will be made The clerical force will remain on duty during the summer Assistant Private Secretary Rodgers is in charge To-day the President will attend to within telegram his communication with the White house, and will in that way attend to all matters requiring action on his part

NO CHANGES IMPERATIVE.

WASHINGTON Aug 10—It is said at the treasury department that there will be no changes of any consequence in that department during Secretary Whitney's absence He is reported to have left instructions in regard to filling certain vacancies including one or two chiefs of divisions, and making a few minor appointments but nothing beyond that The report that Supervising Architect Bell is to be superseded in a few days is contradicted on good authority Candidates for his place have all been disappointed

CONDITION OF COTTON

WASHINGTON Aug 10—Returns to the department of agriculture make a slight improvement in condition of cotton on the 1st of August the general average being 87 5 a point only once exceeded in the August returns of ten years in 1880

ISSUE OF SILVER DOLLARS

WASHINGTON Aug 10—The issue of standard silver dollars for the week ending August 8 was $488 913 The issue during the corresponding period last year was $211,408.

PRESIDENTIAL PROCLAMATION

The Rights of Settlers to be Enforced Against Cattle Men.

WASHINGTON, Aug 10—The following proclamation by the president was issued to-day

By the President of the United States of America A proclamation

WHEREAS Public policy demands that the public lands shall be reserved for occupancy of actual settlers in good faith and that our people who seek homes upon such domain shall in no wise be prevented by any wrongful interference from lawful safe and free entry thereof to which they may be entitled and

WHEREAS, To secure and maintain this benefficent policy a statute was passed by the congress of the United States on the 25th day of February in the year 1885 which declared to be unlawful all inclosures of any public lands in any state or territory, to any of which land included with such inclosure the person party association or corporation making or controlling such inclosures had no claim or color to title made or acquired in good faith or an asserted right thereto by or under claim made in good faith with a view to entry thereof at the proper land office and which statute also prohibited any person by force threats intimidation or by any fencing enclosure or other unlawful means from preventing or obstructing any person from peaceably entering upon or establishing settlement or residence on any tracts of public land subject to settlement or entry under the public land laws of the United States and from preventing or obstructing free passage and transit over or through public lands and

WHEREAS It is by the fifth section of said act provided as follows "That the president is hereby authorized to take such means as shall be necessary to remove and destroy any unlawful inclosure of said lands and to prevent such inclosure and to employ for the purpose such part of the military force as may be necessary for that purpose and

WHEREAS It has been brought to my knowledge that unlawful inclosures and such as are prohibited by the terms of the aforesaid statute exist upon the public lands and that pretended legal settlement thereon is prevented and obstructed by such inclosures and by force threats and intimidation now therefore I Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby order and direct that any and every unlawful inclosure of public lands mentioned by any person association or corporation be immediately remedied, and I do hereby prohibit any person association or corporation from preventing or obstructing by means of such inclosures or by force threats or intimidation any person entitled thereto from peaceably entering upon and establishing settlement or residence on any part of such public lands which is subject to entry and settlement under the laws of the United States, and I command and require that such and every officer of the United States upon whom the duty is legally devolved to cause this order to be obeyed and all provisions of the act of Congress herein mentioned to be faithfully enforced CLEVELAND

SOME INTERESTING SPECULATION.

Did the President's Letter to a Democrat Refer to an Oregon Appointment?

NEW YORK, Aug 10—A Washington special reviewing correspondence recently published from Cluc mail between a repentant signer of an application for office and the president calls attention to the fact that the former's letter is dated July 24 and the president's reply August 1 It then proceeds A letter mailed at San Francisco or Portland on July 25 should have reached the president August 1 A letter from Lincoln mailed July 24 would have reached him within thirty six hours Letters were first published August 4 three days after the president's letter was written, and hence could not have been given out for publication by Secretary Lamar Could Mr Lamar have been declared at the White house since the publication that the correspondence is genuine. The recipient of the president's letter would undoubtedly be the last man in the world to make its contents public and the correspondent therefore was evidently made public by the president or with his consent

The only judicial appointments made by the president in July were those of James H Hayes of Wisconsin, to be chief justice of Idaho territory and Edward J Dawne of Oregon, to be United States judge for Alaska As Wisconsin has a representative in the cabinet, one who is a lawyer and personally acquainted with members of the legal profession in that state it would be unsafe to believe that Hayes is the man referred to in our correspondence If the statements refer to Dawne and the president believes them to be true it is difficult to understand why he says that the confession is too late to be of immediate service The appointment of judicial officers like that of any other civil officer commissioned by the president is incomplete until confirmed by the senate The president may withdraw such appointment even after it is sent to the senate, and it is believed that he may recall a commission issued during a vacation of the senate

THE SOUTH AMERICAN COMMISSION

It Submits Reports on its Visit to Venezuela and Ecuador

WASHINGTON Aug 10—The commission appointed to visit Central and South America in the interest of commerce between those countries and the United States, has made reports on its visit to Ecuador Venezuela and Guatemala No reports on the visit to Brazil and Argentine republic have been published, and it is understood that none will be made. The early return of the commission to Washington was made by telegraph, at the request of Secretary Bayard who asked the members to be at home by July 1st The commission says it found the president of Ecuador rather disposed to a reciprocity treaty because of the large revenues from imports and because other countries buy more goods from Ecuador than the United States which in that respect stands little The tariff of Ecuador was to be revised soon, however and he would suggest a reduction in the duty on kerosene in regard to the adoption of a common silver coin for the Central and South American states and the United States he said its country was now making its silver mines, and had no silver to coin He favored a commercial congress of the countries mentioned and went on to say that one of the great obstacles to commerce with the United States was high freight charges, the carrying trade being practically a monopoly and intimated that if the United States would establish a line of steamers, with equitable charges, no other coast vessels would be allowed to trade at the ports of Ecuador The commission reports that a treaty with Spain, Ecuador's largest customer, was being negotiated The commission believes that by the exercise of proper methods the United States can gain practical control of the trade of this country.

The commission reports that it was received by the president of Venezuela and his cabinet with its suggestions received as matters of much importance but that the Venezuelan congress was soon to convene and he desired not to be hampered by promises but said he would soon communicate with the United States government on the subjects referred to In addition General Blanco was in Europe for the purpose of negotiating treaties

In the report on the results of the visit to Guatemala is embodied a communication from the minister of foreign relations in relation to points for consideration submitted by the commission It concludes as follows The government of Guatemala is thoroughly convinced of the necessity of more intimate relations between the United States and it and accepts gladly the manifestation made to it of the desire of the United States to lend its moral influence in case of necessity to prevent European interference in American affairs and considers that such influence and attitude will be very important and beneficial.

Continuing the letter says The government of Guatemala is disposed to arrange and it has already taken some steps toward it a treaty of reciprocity or even one to produce the greatest benefit to the greatest possible number of inhabitants of both countries according to the terms proposed by the commissioners but reserves the privilege of a freer discussion in detail the articles of the treaty and especially providing among those articles provided by Guatemala to receive free in the United States sugar shall be included

The letter adds that Guatemala favors a common silver coin of the value of a gold dollar, that that nation would gladly join an international congress and concludes by saying that the consolidation of the Central American states would prove of great commercial advantage all around

CROP RETURNS.

A General Decrease in Wheat of Four Points for the Month—Other Crop Prospects

WASHINGTON Aug 10—The agricultural bureau reports that the corn crop has made an improvement since the last report The average stands four points lower than the standard full condition and indicates a yield with reasonable future and favorable temperature hereafter of twenty seven bushels per acre The average for August 1884, was the same but fell three points during the sixty days following when the yield was twenty six bushels In 1882 the average for August was three points and the ultimate yield as reported by the census was twenty eight bushels The increase has been in New York 6, Virginia and North Carolina 3, Georgia, Alabama 1 Michigan 5, Illinois 4 Missouri 2 Kansas 7 Nebraska 3 and Iowa 9

There has been a slight decline in Pennsylvania Maryland South Carolina Tennessee Texas Kentucky Ohio and Indiana

In the seven surplus states the averages are Ohio 96 Indiana 95, Illinois 94 Iowa 101 Nebraska 100 Missouri 80 and Kansas 80

Correspondents report droughts in some places and excesses of rain in others but wheat drained and cultivated land has suffered little from it or supersaturation Meteorological conditions have been generally favorable The prospect has not been exceeded since 1880

THE WHEAT CROP

Moist and hot weather following the 15th of July has caused some damage to spring wheat in the Northwest mainly in Wisconsin and Minnesota Most of the great wheat counties in Minnesota report averages from 75 to 90 though Dodge returns only 60 Some of less importance made an average of 100 The reduction in the prospective yield is greatest in Minnesota, amounting to 9 points The falling off in Wisconsin is 6 points Iowa 4 and Dakota. There is an increase in the other territories and the New England The average decline is 4 points and indicates a reduction of 4,000 000 of bushels from the expectation on the 1st of July

No reports concerning the result of threshing of winter wheat are received except in the South In Texas the outcome is greater than was expected and higher rates of yield are reported

OTHER CROPS

The average for oats is declined from 1 the winter is four points higher than it August of last year

Rye averages 94 strongly continued improvement since the 1st of June

Barley stands as in the last report a 90 which indicates an average crop for any series of five or ten years

There is an increase in the area of buckwheat and the condition averages 96

A medium crop of hay is assured by an average of 85

Tobacco gives a general average of 1

The average for potatoes is 90 against 91 last month

COLONEL GRANT INTERVIEWED

Jim Renwick Wins a Race at Saratoga—The President Pardons a Democratic Partisan Who Did Good Work in Ohio

NEW YORK Aug 10—A special to Philadelphia says The announcement of divorce proceedings instituted by Henry W Bartol a wealthy and prominent man of this city against his wife has created much excitement in society circles here It has been a matter of gossip for some time that the couple had ages ago agreed part but it was not suspected that they had any specific grounds on which to base an action for divorce Mrs Bartol I have a popular woman in society about 32 years of age and mother of three children She is decidedly pretty It was thought that the trouble between them lay in the wife's fondness for society William D Kelley, Jr one of the two gentlemen who are made co respondents, is the only son of Congressman William D Kelley better known as Pig Iron Kelley and about 30 years of age He is a prominent member of the Social Art club, and the finest city troop Bartol who is worth 40 years old employed a detective to shadow his wife's movements for several months and she was seen to visit the house of Congressman Kelley when all other members of the family were absent. The other co respondent is John Draper a New York society man who is but slightly known in this city Both co respondents deny all allegations The popular expression of opinion is in the wife's favor and the result of the proceedings is looked forward to with the greatest interest

FAILURE OF AN IRON FIRM

NEW YORK, Aug 10—The firm of A Lanman & Roach dealers in iron at 130 and 134 Cedar street made an assignment to-day for the benefit of their creditors to Frances H Rollin without preferences A representative of the assignee stated to-day that the failure was due to the general depression in the iron trade that creditors of the firm had been pressing their claims, threatening to sue the firm and that attachments had been placed on the firm's mill property in Pennsylvania. It was said also that the firm or members of the firm was a grandson of John Roach the ship builder whose failure had greatly excited the firm's creditors Messrs Lanman and Roach consulted counsel and acting upon their lawyer's advice decided to make a general assignment for the protection of all their creditors The books will have to be thoroughly examined before the liabilities and assets can be determined

DECIDEDLY DARISH

NEW YORK Aug 10—The Tribune says "In spite of all efforts to hold up the price of wheat in the interest of a great combination of speculators who bought large quantities months ago when there were reports that the winter wheat had been seriously damaged the price obstinately refuses to rise The farmers have any quantity to sell and they will fresh wheat never any speculators are longer fooled with false reports throughout the South are also very grateful for they exhibit a spirit that my father had always hoped for

A PLAIN DENIAL

Robert Garrett Wants it Understood that the Baltimore & Ohio is not for Sale

NEW YORK, Aug 10.—The following cable correspondence was to-day telegraphed from Nuremburg, by Mr Robert Garrett to H. Hilton president of the Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph company

NUREMBURG, Aug 10

I received through Mr Pender the following from Mr Field, who sailed suddenly saturday for America

LONDON, Aug 6.—Cyrus W Field to Mr Pender Russell Sage wants to know the best terms that Garrett would sell his lines right out for money I do not sell right but what terms would he accept upon a pooling or other agreement upon a fair basis Mr Field suggests that both companies agree to advance rates at once keeping separate but under a fair and binding agreement

Mr Pender has wired him at my request as follows under date of August 8

Cyrus W Field on board steamer, Queenstown—I have delivered your message to Garrett who requested me to express to you as follows "I have your message through Mr Pender in which you say It is self Sage wishes to know the best terms the Baltimore & Ohio company will sell its telegraph right out, for money and that if the Baltimore & Ohio company will not sell outright he wishes me to name terms for a pooling or other agreement I also have your message asking me to advance the tariff under a binding agreement with the Western Union Cable Mr Sage that the Baltimore & Ohio declines as terminus to sell its lines, which are not for sale at any price and also declines your proposition to advance rates."

I also wired Mr. Field to Queenstown as follows, under date of August

To Field, Queenstown Allow me to suggest as proper and fair that before sailing you cable to the other side, contradicting absolutely the lies which have been circulated about the telegraph understandings between us and with which your name has been freely used Unless you do this positively and in satisfactory shape, and repeat the same before sailing, I shall feel disposed to give to the public your message and my reply

Mr Pender also cabled Dr Green as follows I observe that Western Union has advanced from 1 to about 8 and a considerable portion of this advance has taken place since Mr Field and I had an interview with Mr Garrett I am told that it is understood in America that this interview Mr Garrett approached Mr Field and myself with a view of effecting the sale of his system to the Western Union as a settlement of the existing state of things with the Baltimore This is untrue and it is only fair to Mr Garrett that I should let you know this. Subsequent to the interview I cabled to you that a pooling arrangement using the Atlantic & Pacific and the American Union purchase as a basis of settlement might be negotiated It is evident to me that the information you have got elsewhere does not fairly represent the case and I am anxious therefore that the real facts shall be known to you and the public Mr Garrett has been perfectly open in all his business and since I came to Bamburg he has read me extracts from letters showing that statement is going about on your side are exaggerated as I do not wish my name to be compromised in any way I think I am justified in sending you this telegram

Please give the above correspondence to the press with such additional information as may be necessary to fully explain our independent position ROBERT GARRETT

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO NOT FOR SALE

NEW YORK, Aug 10—In relation to cable correspondence between Messrs Garrett Pender and Field Mr D H. Bates president of the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph company, says "The wild rumors which have been circulated during the past month concerning an alleged arrangement between the Western Union and the Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph companies have been repeatedly denied by Mr Garrett and myself only to be renewed in some varied form or other which were each time deemed to be the most explicit denials It is remarkable that these statements have not only remained unnoticed in this side by those who must have known their falsity but now it has been necessary to see the official denial from Mr Pender who is I believe an honorary Western Union director The Baltimore & Ohio which since the absorption by the Western Union of the American Union and the Atlantic & Pacific companies in 1881 has operated an independent telegraphic system, has never faltered in its policy of maintaining its independence, believing that ample and substantial lines between important trade centers of the country built at low prices for cash would command adequate custom and afford a fair return upon the investment, and instead of selling as some would wish us to do, we are still extending and adding to our system covering territory until lately occupied by the American Rapid whose lines were recently absorbed by our rival and contracts have been made or additional extensions to various other points

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

PARDONED BY THE PRESIDENT

CINCINNATI Aug 10—Police Lieutenant Michael Murlen was to-day released from the county jail, a full pardon having arrived from Washington signed by President Cleveland. Murlen had charge of the Hammond street police district at the presidential election last November, and he was convicted of having locked up in the station house over 100 colored men the night before election They were detained until after 6 P M of election day, when all were released. No charge was entered against any of them Mullen was convicted in the United States court for violation of the federal election laws and sentenced to one year's imprisonment, which began January 30 The pardon gave as grounds for the action of the president the general good reputation of the prisoner the fact that the application was signed by many first-class citizens and that Mullen probably misapprehended his duties and various other reasons

JESSE R. GRANT'S MARRIAGE.

BATAVIA Ohio July 27—There are only two persons living who witnessed the marriage of Jesse R Grant and Hannah Simpson They are Samuel Simpson brother of the general's mother residing at Ripley, eight miles from here and who was born in Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, October 2 1796 and John Page aged 90 living near Galt At only a few miles from Mr Simpson's and who is a native of Burlington New Jersey He is a son of Thomas Page, who died, his life on the Simpson farm near Bantam to John Simpson father of Gen. Grant's mother and of whose tannery, at Point Pleasant Jesse R. Grant was superintendent from 1820 to 1822 when he removed to Georgetown Including the Simpson family only fifteen persons witnessed the historic marriage, of which the following certificate so quaintly tells

Of these two surviving witnesses one was the bride's brother, then himself unmarried and the other was the son of the man for whom the groom was running a pioneer tannery on the Ohio river at the mouth of Indian creek There was some astonishing blundering about the name of Ulysses Simpson Grant, a name now in the world's ear and mouth During the war his father once told the writer hereof that he was ort, finally named Hiram Ulysses, (he last being given as his grandmother Simpson in honor of the great old Greek and the first being his own choice When, however, Gen. Hamilton appointed young Grant to West Point in 1839 he had either forgotten the boy's correct name or carelessly gave it wrong to the war department, and hence his cadet warrant was made out Ulysses Simpson, which, not being able to get corrected he quietly bore through his course at the military academy After his graduation in honor of his mother, he changed Sydney to Simpson All his West Point letters to his parents and old home friends are signed Hiram Ulysses.

Particulars of a Terrible Tragedy at Silverton.

MAXWELL AT SAN FRANCISCO.

One Accident Leads to Another—One Man Killed and Several Injured—Four Indians Killed in Arizona—Coast Notes

SALEM, August 10—Coroner Wartiner was notified this morning of a double tragedy at Silverton and having just returned, furnishes the following particulars C F Libby and Arthur Patty are partners in the sash and door business at that place where they have been located for several months past the latter, a young man, having married with the former who is a man of family At o clock A M while Libby was washing out the back of the house, Libby took a double barreled shotgun heavily loaded with bullets and shot, and remarking to his wife that he was going to kill a rat slipped into the back yard and with out a word of warning placed the muzzle close to young Patty's left side and emptied the contents into his body the charge ranging upwards and coming out near the right shoulder The young man staggered a few steps exclaiming What did you do that for and fell forward on his face and expired,

TAKES HIS OWN LIFE.

Libby walked into the house, and meeting his wife who, attracted by the shot, was coming out, remarked "I did not mean to do it and passing into a bedroom closed the door A moment afterward another shot was heard and rushing in the family found Libby lying on the floor with the gun lying across his breast fit, charge fired by his own hand having entered his body on the right side and passing directly through his heart, causing instant death.

No one had ever heard of any unpleasantness between them. The young man reached his majority today and was to have an increased interest in the business. Both men were respected in the community Libby who is over 60 years of age, leaves a wife and large family, and Patty a widowed mother and one sister

The coroners showed that the act was premeditated by Libby who had been trying to purchase a revolver for several days. It is generally supposed however that the old man was weak minded as no cause can be assigned for the rash act.

A jury consisting of H G Heald Adolph Wolff, J Wolford, J C Smith W H. Drake and A. J Smith returned separate verdicts in accordance with the facts and the tragedy ended in two acts.

ARRIVAL OF WALTER LENNOX MAXWELL

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 10 — The Australian steamer Zealandia arrived here at 11 o clock this morning having on board Walter Lennox Maxwell, who it is supposed murdered Arthur Patterson at St Louis April last. He was in charge of officers sent to bring him back to this country Maxwell positively refused to make any statement respecting the crime with which he is charged, saying he had been strenuously advised by his counsel not to say anything before leaving Australia nor after leaving Australia nor after leaving his mouth except to put food in it. The officers in charge were equally reticent on the subject, and declined saying anything about the crime or Maxwell's supposed connection therewith He looked cheerful and said he never felt better in his life. He will be taken east to-morrow

On the passage from Auckland, Maxwell was manacled at night, and the two detectives kept six hour watches over him day and night. He maintained perfect ease during the entire trip of twenty-one days never giving the detectives the slightest trouble

Two carriages were in waiting at the steamer landing and the detectives with Maxwell were driven to the city prison where the latter will remain until the departure to morrow afternoon When accosted in the prison he said his name was Dauguler, that he was a Frenchman, a native of Paris and aged 34 He acknowledged having known Preller but beyond this refused to say more repeating what he had previously said, that his attorneys in New Zealand cautioned him about saying anything of the crimes with which he was charged. Ex Police Surgeon Clarke, who came up at that moment asked if he spoke French. He replied that he spoke a patois of Norman French Dr Clarke said he was familiar with that patois whereupon Maxwell suddenly checked himself and

A CONTRAST OF METHODS

Georgia's new local option law has features which will give it in many places the effect of a prohibitory statute. Under its provisions an election may be held in any county, every two years, to decide whether liquors may be sold in the county or not. When the decision is in the negative that ends the matter the county is committed to prohibition, and no further vote can be taken in the question. But if not in the negative, the subject will come up to be voted on again in the next biennial election, and the next and the next, till prohibition is finally secured. That is, every victory of the prohibitionists in a county is final, but the victory over the prohibitionists decides nothing. A report from Georgia says "It is expected that these elections will finally worry and tire out the liquor men. They will always have to be on the defensive and always on the alert, for a single defeat means annihilation. The prohibition movement is making much more rapid advancement throughout the South than it is in the north. It is gaining a strong foothold in Louisiana, Texas, Virginia and other southern states."

But it is to be observed that prohibition is not pushed in Georgia and the other states as a party movement. It takes the form of non-partisan local effort, and to that it adheres. It doesn't attempt the impossible by trying to force prohibition by state law upon localities where there is little or no sentiment to sustain it. In Georgia there are no large cities and not many large towns. The consequence is that four-fifths of the counties have already carried or will soon carry the local option prohibitory law. In the counties that contain such towns as Atlanta, Savannah and a few others, it is not expected to carry. The Atlanta Constitution says the result will be prohibition for the country and high license for the cities and it expresses a belief that this result will ultimately be reached in all the states.

But in most of the northern states it is delayed by the course of an association of professional, third party prohibitionists, who, in effect, make common cause with those who want to vend liquors free. Extremes meet. They who start in opposite directions from the same point on the circumference of the circle and keep going, come together at last.

If any real progress is ever to be made in restricting the liquor traffic in the northern states the plan which is pursued in the south must be adopted. But here is the Lever, prohibition organ, published at Chicago, saying "It is too evident to need proof that if our northern republican politicians had been as willing to grant the reasonable requests of prohibitionists as have our southern democratic leaders, there never would have been a third party organized; but all temperence men would have united on the non partisan plan." To this the Chicago Tribune answers "Here is a double falsehood. The St. John prohibitionists ask that the manufacture and sale of liquor be forbidden by the state constitution and also by the United States constitution. Neither of these absurd ideas has ever occurred to the democratic state government of Georgia. It has never been proposed to amend the constitution of that state so as to prohibit the sale of liquor, and no statute has ever been passed by the legislature to that purport." In other words, the prohibitionists of the South have never made "requests" that the professional, third party political prohibitionists have made and are making in the North. They have too much sound sense to do it. Again, to quote from the Tribune for the purpose of exposing the second part of the "double false hood": In Illinois there is a general law four teen years old which enables the people of every community to vote prohibition whenever they choose without asking for special legislative authority. Experience has proved that local option is the only practical method to prohibit the sale of liquor, as it has popular support behind it wherever adopted, and the prohibitionists of the southern states are satisfied with it. But the prohibitionists of Illinois and other northern states seek to enforce prohibition on communities which refuse to accept it." Hence they are attempting an impracticable thing, and hence also prohibition, or restriction of the liquor traffic in any form, is making no progress at the North in comparison with its progress at the South. Between a practicable and impracticable method there could be no sharper contrast.

DRY AND HUMID AIR

Everybody knows that temperature, as indicated by thermometers, has not much to do with personal comfort. One weather in some places is hotter with the thermometer at 85 degrees than in other places where it indicates 95. The dryness of the atmosphere is the measure of comfort, and the excellence of the summer climate of the Pacific coast is due to the fact that we are free from the humid, "sticky" days so common in the country east of the Rocky range. Once or twice in Portland this summer the thermometer has indicated a temperature of 90 degrees. Yet at this temperature there was far less discomfort than one often experiences in Chicago or Philadelphia at 80 or 82.

Again, in a dry atmosphere like ours, though it is often actually hot enough in places exposed to the sun, it is always comfortably cool in shady places removed from air that has been in direct contact with the sun's rays. But in a humid atmosphere there is almost no difference between the temperature in sunshine and in shade. To a person who has lived all his life on the Pacific coast and makes a summer visit to the eastern states this appears surprising. The shade, sought here for relief, there gives none and even the shade of night is little cooler than the open glare of day.

But in winter the conditions of the atmosphere in the two sections are reversed. The air in the vicinity of the Pacific ocean during the winter season is extremely humid, while that east of the mountains is comparatively dry. Hence the freezing point—thirty degrees or thereabout—seems actually as cold here as zero anywhere east of the Rocky mountains, or in fact anywhere east of the Cascade range. One may actually feel the cold more, if exposed in a humid atmosphere at twenty-five degrees, than in like circumstances in a perfectly dry atmosphere at five or ten degrees below zero. In early days here in winter, before there were facilities of travel, people were often compelled to ride considerable distances on horseback and they who had this experience well remember how thoroughly chilled and benumbed they would be after riding five to ten hours when the temperature was below forty degrees.

MONEY WANTED

At a meeting of the board of trade last night Mr C. H. Prescott, manager of the Oregon Railway & Navigation company, made a formal offer to sluice out the sand bars at Martin's and Watter's island and at St. Helens if the citizens of Portland will pay half the cost—$4000. The company, through Mr. Prescott, offers to furnish a steamer free and pay half the charges of her operation during twenty days, time enough it is thought, to make deep channels through all of the bars. Mayor Gates also tendered his services to direct the work, former sluicing operations having been under his superintendence. The board after hearing these propositions appointed a committee of nine to solicit subscriptions to the fund with instructions to go about the business at once.

And now only one thing is to be done and that is to put up the money. It is useless to reassert the urgency of the occasion for everybody knows that if the required fund is not forthcoming we shall have no ships here this fall and that we shall have to pay out $300,000 or upward in lighterage fees. Of course the money will be raised. The amount is small and those who are interested are many. Let the responses be liberal and prompt. There is no time to lose if we would save the credit of our port.

If it be true, as a dispatch says, that "the very existence of the Salisbury government depends upon the breath of Mr. Parnell," then the Salisbury government must fall. Oil and water may be put into the same pot and kept together for a time, but they won't mix. The union of the conservative party with the Irish party is unnatural and incongruous. The purposes and methods of the two parties are not only different but discordant. The Irish leaders cannot join with the conservatives without giving up the principles which underlie their party organization, and Salisbury and his associates cannot fraternize with the Irish without ceasing to be conservatives. There is not soon to be an end of such an alliance. And then what? Gladstone again!

UPPER COLUMBIA IMPROVEMENT

Senator Dolph's recent suggestion of an open river from the ocean to the British Columbia line is fascinating. It is easy to calculate great advantages from such a consummation. But it is easy, also, to calculate the cost. The report of the government engineer, Maj. W. A. Jones, furnishes partial figures at hand. To complete the work at the Cascade will require $1,750,000. To build locks at The Dalles will cost $1 000,000 more, but a temporary railway for carrying steamboats can be built for $1,250,000. There are no estimates for Priest Rapids, nor for Kettle falls, but two millions more will be required to overcome the obstacles at these other minor points. Thus it will be seen that it will cost $4,000,000 at the least to open the river, leaving the work at the mouth and on the lower channels out of the calculation. If the regular plan of canal and locks be adopted for The Dalles (and the government doesn't put money into makeshifts) subtract $1,250,000 from the total estimate and add 111,000,000. Result, $4 750 000. How long under the government plan of making appropriations would it take to get this amount of money? Major Jones is hopeful—he says, "over one hundred years." But these estimates are for doing the work at once. With appropriations dribbled out by littles, a much greater sum will be required. And it may be doubted if during the present administration at least, we shall have even the customary small sums. To limit works of this sort is a feature of the democratic "reform" which is pending now before the voters of the country.

But the scheme is a good one. Indeed, it is a great one and it will be accomplished in time we doubt not, but we doubt if any person now living will ever ride in a steamboat without transfer up the British line. This scheme is one to plan and promote for the benefit of future generations in the spirit with which old men often plan apple trees. This OREGONIAN is not as has often been asserted, opposed to this improvement. It sees in it, if it could be accomplished, many great benefits to the upper country, to Portland and to the whole country. But it regards this accomplishment as a thing afar off, as impracticable and useless, so far as the present generation is concerned. It is too familiar with the delays incident to works of this kind to allow itself to be deluded by vain hopes. And, viewing the matter in this light, it cannot violate its principle of veracity to raise those whose interests make them blind to the facts in the case, by giving utterance to the alarming and false predictions.

Much as it would like to the favor of the people of eastern Oregon, it will not attempt to gain it by saying to them agreeable things which it does not believe to be true.

For the benefit of those who are to come after us, we hope to see the work progress from year to year. Every stroke is toward a great and useful end and we would not have the work stopped simply because all of us will be in our graves before the final accomplishment.

RAILROAD STATISTICS

Advance sheets of Poor's Manual of Railroads for 1885 are received. They show that the total number of miles of railroad in the United States at the close of 1884 was 126,370, of which 3977 miles were constructed during the year. The funded debts of all the lines at the close of the year aggregated $3,669,115,772, and other forms of indebtedness amounted to $241,666,596. Gross earnings or receipts of all the lines on which returns were received for the year equaled $770,684,668, of which $206,790,731 were received from transportation of passengers, $502,669,940 from transportation of freight, $7,484,694 by lines the returns of which were so incomplete as to preclude their use in the tables giving the general results—the sources of income, amount of tonnage moved, etc., etc., and $53,749,947 from the transportation of mails and express matter, from investments, and from the sales of lands applicable to the payment of interest or dividends. The gross earnings for the year ending December 31, 1883, were $82,772,024.

The net earnings of all the lines for 1884 equaled $288,103,258, against $293,367,285 for 1883, the falling off equaling $5,264,027, the rate of decrease being about 9 per cent.

The amount of interest paid in 1884 equaled $176,044,102, against $173,189,084 in 1883, the increase being $2,855,238, the rate of increase equaling more than 2 per cent.

The amount paid in dividends in 1884 equaled $93,241,856, against $102,052,548 in 1883, the falling off equaling $8,807,713, the rate of decrease being about 8.8 per cent.

The number of persons transported in 1884 by all lines was 38,814,529, against $12,986,611 for 1883, the increase for the year being 22,127,888, the rate of increase equaling 18 per cent.

The number of tons of freight transported on our railroads in 1884 equaled 390,074,744, against 403,483,199 tons in 1883 the falling off equaling 13,408,455 tons, the rate of decrease being about 3½ per cent. The value of the tonnage moved in 1884, estimating its value at $25 the ton, equaled $9,751,868,725.

GRAIN STORAGE.

A writer in Walla Walla is needlessly fearful that the storage capacity of the Portland warehouses is not equal to the demands that will be made upon it. He declares (we imagine through a pair of mistake) that the grain warehouses here will hold only 37,000 tons. As a matter of fact they will hold 70,000 tons, and in case of need, other docks can be used temporarily for wheat. One warehouse alone (the Montgomery at Albina) holds 17,000 tons and is being enlarged in expectation of extraordinary demands during the coming season.

In looking through the docks of this city during the months of September and October, one gets the impression that we do a big business in grain, but the figures seem very trifling when compared with the big statistics of Chicago. That city has storage for 35,000,000 bushels, and the Duluth elevators will hold 9,400 000 bushels. On August 1st the elevators of these two points held 14,765,048 bushels of wheat and more than a million bushels of corn for more than the entire amount exported from Portland.

Storage rates, however are higher here than here. Chicago elevator rates for summer and winter are as follows: For the first ten days ⅓ cent per bushel for the second ten days ½ cent per bushel ditto for the third ten days, or 1½ cents per bushel or 50 cents per ton per month. These are summer rates, which go into effect on the 15th of April and rule till the 15th of November. Winter rates rule between November 15, and April 5, when it is supposed grain lies in the elevator awaiting lake navigation. For this season of five months four cents is charged or $1 33 per ton per cm. If we add that to the summer rate we find the total charge for storage at Chicago for one year is $4 83-100, or nearly double the charges on the Pacific coast.

In the British house of commons all the members keep their hats on, and if in even irregular to address the speaker uncovered. This rule gave rise to an amusing scene some nights ago. Mr. Courtney attempted to address the chair on a point of order. To do so, in accordance with the rules, it is necessary that he should speak seated and covered—but at the critical moment he was unable to find his hat, and on addressing the speaker uncovered, was met with laughter and loud cries of "Order!" Mr. Courtney then borrowed a hat from a member sitting near and stated his point. The custom of wearing hats in the commons is a very old and perhaps immemorial custom. In old drawings illustrative of scenes in the Long Parliament the members were also seen when the king was present in the chamber. The custom was transferred to our early colonial legislatures, but did not come into use in the American congress, the habit of uncovering being adopted probably out of a sense of solemnity and decorum that attended the effort to set up for ourselves. Or perhaps as our congress was at first composed of dutiful subjects of the English crown, "hats off," was considered the proper thing for a body pleading for the rights of America.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

OREGON

One year ago Adams, Umatilla county, shipped 4000 tons of wheat. This year 20,000 tons will be shipped.

The Weston Leader publishes the following harvest notes: Baddeley & Morgan sac eighty acres that made 3736 bushels to the acre. R. B. Warren had 160 acres of wheat that averaged thirty-eight bushels to the acre. Thomas Thompson, on the John Kirk place, threshed over 4000 bushels from 150 acres. H. B. A. Hailey's large farm of several hundred acres is yielding a little over forty bushels to the acre. Mr. Whitehead, a few miles west of Adams, had 11 acres that yielded an average of forty-four bushels to the acre. Mr. A. J. Marsh, whose farm adjoins Adams, realized over forty bushels of wheat per acre from his whole crop. Monroe Ferguson, near Adams, whose crops were so badly frost bitten is getting an average of forty-two bushels of wheat to the acre. Joe Morgan's thirty acres of corn ground went forty bushels to the acre. Mr. W. Ferguson, near Adams, threshed 1000 bushels of wheat from 140 acres, and it is estimated that fully 1000 was shattered by the winds and lost. J. M. Gallagher of Greasewood is realizing about thirty bushels to the acre from his large farm. Some fields yielded only twenty-five bushels, others a great deal more. The whole farm will average thirty bushels. John Morehouse finished harvesting his large crop of grain last Saturday and the last sack is now in the warehouse at the mill. Mr. Morehouse informs us that one field of 180 acres yielded 10,000 bushels, an average of 55½ bushels to the acre. This is the best yield so far reported in this vicinity.

IDAHO

Idaho has 300,000 head of horses, valued at $15,000,000, and 465,000 cattle, valued at $14,250,000. Utah has 70,000 horses, worth $3,500,000, and 225,000 cattle, worth $12,750,000.

Joe Wheeler, the horse-thief, who was shot at Rock creek, Cassia county, and taken to Albion for treatment, died on the 30th ult. He was a partner of Wm. Land, who was burned to death in the jail at Baker City last week.

About 12 o'clock last Sunday night a fire broke out in the town of Bullion, and despite the efforts of the citizens to extinguish the flames, they continued to spread until the greater part of the town had been consumed. Fourteen mining claims the damages over $30,000.

The Ore Fino mine at Silver City continues to yield $1000-ore, which is sacked as soon as it comes to the surface. The chute does not seem to grow small as work progresses, but increases in length and richness. Nearly every piece of ore extracted is covered with gold and silver, and it is worth the while for the curious to go and see.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT NORTH SELBE

NORTH BEACH Aug 7, 885

A meeting was held this day on the beach to consider the question of holding Grant memorial services at some place on the beach tomorrow.

Upon motion Hon D P Thompson was chosen chairman of the meeting and James Steele was appointed secretary. It was then voted that memorial services be held at Zoolock P M. and Mr Thompson was chosen as a committee of one to arrange for the place for holding services, and to confer with Rev Dr. Atkinson, Judge Whalley and Col. F V Holman, and request them to address the people.

Messrs. Chandlessen and Jordan were appointed a committee to notify the different camps on the beach and the people at Ilwaco that memorial services will be held and request the presence of all who could attend.

James Steele was appointed a committee of one to arrange for music.

Mr E. J Jeffery was appointed marshal and Messrs Morey and Barnes assistants, and all present were requested to spread the information as far as possible that services would be held

NORTH BEACH, Aug 8

The following programme of exercises was carried out

Proclamation of President Cleveland and of the governors of Oregon and Washington territory read by James Steele

Music, Silver Spring Home led by Mrs Wetzel

Scripture reading Psalms xlvi and xc, by Dr Atkinson

Prayer by Rev Mr Hobart.

Music solo by Mrs Wetzel, Nearer My God to Thee

Address by Judge Whalley

Music singing "Jesus Lover of My Soul"

Address by Rev Dr Atkinson

Music, Sterling, America.

Address by Col F V Holman

On motion of Mr Morey a vote of thanks was then tendered to Mr and Mrs. Stout for use of piano and for the courtesies received from them on this occasion. Benediction was then pronounced by Dr Atkinson.

YAMHILL NOTES.

McMINNVILLE, Aug. 10

Twenty-four years ago to-day Gen. Lyon was killed at Wilson creek.

Hon. J. R. Sanders had forty acres of wheat that yielded twenty-five bushels to the acre.

The approach to the South Yamhill bridge is completed for travel. It is over 800 feet long.

Summers and family, of Portland, passed through town yesterday on a pleasure trip to Nestucca.

Hon. W. J. McConnell was here on Saturday, looking after the interests of the county fair, of which society he is president.

James Weston, near Amity, had fifty acres that yielded thirty five bushels to the acre, and Bob Chaney seventy acres that yielded forty to the acre.

The party of six young men who went to the Big Nestucca last week killed three deer and caught about 500 trout, some of them twenty inches long.

Ten days ago A. M. Taggart left Fort Scott, Kansas, arrived here, brought out H. Chaun, the tailor, and is set up for business. His family arrived on Saturday evening. He reports many more coming from that cold, hot and dried up region.

A party consisting of Mrs. B. L. Pittock and two children, Mrs. W. D. Palmer and two children, and Mrs. W. W. Spalding, all of Portland, arrived on the Saturday evening express and started next morning for Tillamook, on a three-weeks pleasure trip.

Hon. D. D. Durham reports one field of grain at thirty-four bushels to the acre, another forty acres at a little over forty bushels to the acre, and he puts the general average of fall grain in the valley at twenty bushels. The fall wheat will be harvested by the middle of this week.

OUT OF TOWN EXERCISES.

At McMinnville services were held at the C. P. church on Saturday. Rev. T. H. Henderson delivered the address.

At Forest Grove services were held in the M. E. church. Rev. W. D. Nichols delivered the oration. Addresses were made by President Ellis, Rev. Mr. Reese and Prof. W. D. Lyman. President Ellis, himself a soldier under Grant, gave some touching personal recollections of the great general.

At Chehalis services were held in the court house at 1:30 P. M. The house was crowded to its fullest capacity, and was tastefully decorated and presented a fine appearance. The civic societies attended in a body. Addresses were made by Revs. Broullette and Parker and the meeting was presided over by Mayor Prindle. A memorial poem was read by O. B. Harmon.

At Lafayette, business was suspended. A meeting was held at the church, addressed by Rev. James Hoberg, Dr. J. Wallis, Judge Hurley and Rev. Mr. Parsons, of Dayton. The Galbreath read an original poem, composed for the occasion, and Miss Katie Olds recited a poem. A sunrise salute was fired from the "Union," Dr. Wallis's old cannon that had so often thundered forth the victories of Gen. Grant during the war.

FOREST GROVE NOTES

FOREST GROVE, Aug 9

Prof. W. D. Lyman and W. Davis start for Mt. St. Helens to-morrow. They purpose to ascend the mountain.

Prof. Jerman and wife and Mrs. Dr. Marsh and family, spent last week in camp on the banks of the Clackamas Nehalem.

Dr. Geiger, who suffered a fracture of the collar bone by being thrown from a buggy a few weeks since, is able to be about again.

Harvest is now more than half over. But very few fields are uncut, and this week will wind up the bulk of the threshing. As a general thing, crops are not yielding as largely as expected, although the average is about what it usually is, but not better.

Nothing anywhere equals St. Jacobs Oil for the cure of pain.

Agreeable to Take.

DROPPING THE DISGUISE.

Washington Spec al to Philadelphia Times, (Mug).

The significance of the result of the Indianapolis postmaster investigation will be better understood when coupled with recent political events here. To say that the administration has carried full upon its professions as to civil service reform beyond the scrupulous enforcement of the law, would be saying too much. But that it has considerably modified its policy with regard to removals and appointments there is no question. It began by requiring specific charges in every case when a removal was asked for or a appointment requested to fill places when the term of the incumbent had not expired. This policy was rigorously adhered to by the president and every member of his cabinet and their immediate responsible subordinates. It may be the general policy still but it is by no means the practice. While this change began during the early months of the administration, it has been of recent date, and is this material fact is a change and that is enough.

Removals or suspensions, as they are more tenderly named, are now being made every day by the dozen and by the score without any charges being filed against the incumbents. Why the change has been made ought to be apparent to every reasoning creature. The anonymous charges and systematic espionage in many cases, on the part of the administration,

COMMENT BY THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS

And so the bush is dropped—and not merely dropped but confessed. The claim has been a part of the every intelligent observer for some time but now it is openly admitted. The Times is the special champion of President Cleveland's administration and in the Washington dispatch, and its friendly representative which reports. To say that the administration has turned full upon its professions as to civil service reform they and the accompaniments of espionage and false pretenses, is too much. But it has considerably modified its policy with regard to removals and appointments. There is no question. For a while there was a pretense of requiring that charges should be made; but now it is simply "off with his head"—so much for Buckingham. Removals are going forward every day, says the correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, without any charges. It is well that the disguise is thrown off. It has ceased to deceive anybody but the blind.

THE WILLAMETTE SLOUGH

PORTLAND Aug 10 1885

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Will you kindly permit me, while endorsing unreservedly your position given under the heading of A Local Hardship in to days OREGONIAN on the necessity of the government works at the head of the Willamette slough to correct some inaccuracies in the statements made to you as to the injury to local interests said to have resulted from the work in question.

The only boats which within the past eight years have maintained regular daily service through the Willamette slough are those of the Cowlitz river company J. Kellogg & Co. These boats still keep up the same daily service without hindrance or detention from the dam at any stage of water, and they are ample for the trade of the slough, as is shown by the fact that they have no competition.

Any steamboat that navigates the Willamette or Columbia river can ascend the slough at any stage of water, and all can descend at any stage towing loaded barges, except the limited number of small craft of inferior power which are sometimes obliged to lighten their cargoes, when coming to or round by way of St. Helens. As the distance from St. Helens to Portland through the slough is five miles longer than by way of the Columbia river the latter route is not in all cases the longest. These facts are known to all river men. H. A. H.

POLITICAL EXPANSION

Indianapolis Journal: Indiana democrats are of opinion that it would be a shame for the present term to end, and a whitewash brush is in the hands of more than one master-mason.

Chicago Journal: An eastern mugwump paper declares: "It says that a strong, manly independent republican who is able to distinguish between right and wrong is also able to distinguish between wisdom and folly in politics. But this does not explain why he prefers Dutch cheese.

New York Tribune: The contention of the Indianapolis malcontents seems to be this: If the president be a spoiled child of destiny the vice president was ill-fitted before he was born and is ill-fitted to respect convention and some little pattern age as the grandfather of the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune: The northern democratic newspapers in Virginia declare that if the people are aroused the republicans will carry the state by 50,000 majority. When the people of Virginia are aroused the fact can be ascertained by the number of massacres like that at Danville which occur. With enough affairs like that probably the democrats can reach the majority named.

THE STAGE.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—The Madison Square company opened their second week at the New Market theater last evening in the comedy of "The Rajah," which in its first production in New York achieved such a brilliant success. Following close upon that broad farcical comedy, "The Private Secretary," and being in such striking contrast with it there was great curiosity as to its character, and we cannot say that the contrast resulted favorably to "The Rajah." While the play possesses some few merits, and with proper stage mounting and accessories might demand popular approval, yet, as presented last evening, it is almost absolutely void of interest. Excepting in the last act there is hardly a single dramatic situation. The character of the Rajah is one so widely different from the Secretary that it is hardly possible to associate Mr. Gillette with it. Yet he did it well, barring a very perceptible similarity in certain portions to his portraiture of last week. Mr. M. A. Kennedy as Joseph Jekyll was on the whole good, though there was a little too much profoundness, so to speak, about his work. We cannot conceive the man of business of an English squire being a person of such a loquacious quality as that presented by Mr. Kennedy. The Gladys Wyrcot of Miss Maud Haslam was a very agreeable personation, as was also that of Emily Jekyll, by Miss Maud Giroux, though there was a very apparent air of unnaturalness about their acting. The Richard Jocelyn of Frank Pumehill, Jr., was a very clever performance, as were also the Job Jekyll of Mr. Warren, and the Buttons of George R. Boaler. Miss Fannie Addison, as Mrs. Pringle, the garrulous house-keeper, was exceedingly good, and the same may be said of H. A. Moray, as Cregin, the outlaw. The play was fairly well mounted. "The Rajah" again to-night, and at the matinee to-morrow.

PERSONAL.

B. B. Litt and party returned on Saturday from Foley's Springs.

Hon. A. J. Holmes, member of congress from Iowa, and wife are at the St. Charles.

Mr. W. F. Kettenbach, cashier of the First National bank of Lewiston, is in this city.

Mr. H. J. Hollister, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and two sons, are registered at the St. Charles.

Hon. A. F. Campbell, of Roseburg, has removed to this city, where he will engage in the practice of law.

Mr. James S. Negley, Jr., of Pittsburg, who is to engage in the practice of law here, arrived yesterday from San Francisco.

Rev. Mr. Reed, of Manchester, England, arrived on Saturday from the East and preached for Rev. E. T. Lee in Calvary Presbyterian church on Sunday night.

A SEASIDE SKETCH.

N. W. DES.

Upon the beach a radiant girl reclines,
Where wimpling waves roll on the yellow sand.
The ocean's breath blows through the nodding pines,
And circling wild-fowl hover o'er the land.

Within those matchless orbs of heaven's blue
There steals at times a wistful, waiting look
Young men of means, alas! are very few,
And she is wondering where to cast her hook.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

AT THE SEASIDE HOUSE.—List of arrivals since last report at the Seaside house: R. J. DeHart, wife and daughter, L. S. Mayo and wife, J. W. Cook, B. Goldsmith, wife and three children and nurse, M. Goldsmith, Lawrice Skibbe, James T. Parkinson and wife, D. Robertson and wife, Mrs. Chas. Hodge, Mrs. F. Steinhart and son, Moses Cummons, E. B. Rosenberger, Mrs. A. M. McCracken, Mrs. J. R. McCraken, Wm. R. Fisher, Mrs. Edward Failing and family, Mrs. Friendly and family, Mrs. Effinger and daughter, Mrs. C. F. Lewis, two children and nurse, Mrs. Good, Miss E. Lewis, Miss D. C. Lewis, T. H. Strowbridge, Dr. Fehrback, R. C. Dockerill, A. V. Ransman, Henry Ach, E. Everitt, E. P. Bosworth, H. C. Westman, John C. Marsh, M. Koshland, B. L. Durham, H. C. Stratton, J. P. Carson, H. M. Hallaway, A. E. Raleigh, Joseph Taylor, R. M. Donovan, Wm. B. Jones, Edward Cookingham, E. S. Tuthill, James Laidlaw, R. Jacobs, R. R. Knapp, John Effinger, Sol. Oppenheimer, Hollis White, C. H. Lewis, Portland; H. Reinhart, New York; Rev. W. Forsfall, Miles City, M. T.; W. C. Woodward, Baltimore; William R. Fisher, San Francisco; Mrs. Friendly and family, Eugene; James F. Parkinson and wife, Minnesota.

EE CAN'T CATCH SALMON.—A fisherman from Astoria was in town yesterday endeavoring to ascertain whether he could be allowed to catch salmon for the market or not. He applied to United States District-Attorney Watson who informed him the law forbids the taking of salmon in the Columbia or any of its tributaries during the months of March, August and September. The fisherman thought it strange the law should allow salmon to be taken by the million during four months and then not allow the people on the river to have any salmon to eat for two months. He was told that it had been held that steelheads, silversides, etc., did not come under the meaning of the act which was construed to mean chinook salmon only. He said no one could catch steelheads without also taking Chinook salmon. He further remarked that if he could not be allowed to fish he would make it hot for those who bought and sold salmon here. To a man up a tree it would seem as if he had more desire to make money by informing than by fishing.

HE WOULD PLAY BALL.—While some of the Stars and the Portland nine were practicing at the Oaks yesterday, the head of an unsophisticated youth from La Center, owned up above the fence. He said he knew how to play baseball well enough for the country, but wanted to join a city club. One of the boys, who pretended to be a banker's son, told the new comer if he sifted he could get $100 a week, be deadheaded to all places of amusement, get free drinks and be a masher. The boys then proceeded to test his qualities. He was put through the ordeals of catching and pitching, being left alone to do the fielding in connection with the latter position, and all the time wearing the catcher's mask. After being induced to run several races against time, his blistered hands and sore limbs reminded him he had to leave, but before doing so accepted an invitation to meet the boys at their club room in the evening with his girl.

RETURNED FROM YELLOWSTONE PARK.—J. E. Stuart, the artist, returned yesterday from a visit to the Yellowstone national park. He spent a month in the park and came away convinced that it is the grandest place in the world. He visited all the principal points of interest and made color sketches of the principal geysers, falls of the Yellowstone hot springs, etc. He climbed on the top of Mount Washburn and climbed the electric peak. The latter is 11,125 feet in height and has been deemed inaccessible. Mr. Stuart, who has probably done more mountain climbing than any other man in the Northwest, successfully scaled this peak and was rewarded by a view of range on range of snow peaks, the lake vapors rising from the geysers and a general assortment of grand and beautiful scenery which can scarcely be equaled in the whole world.

DEATH OF J. H. CARNEY.—On Sunday evening John B. Carney, local freight agent for the Northern Pacific railroad, died at his residence on N street, near Fifteenth, after a long and painful illness, aged 35 years. His disease was dropsy with a complication of other troubles. He was for many years in the employ of transportation companies in Oregon and Washington, and for four years past served the N. P. as agent at Cheney, Missoula and Seattle and latterly in this city. He leaves a wife and two children. At all times he was faithful and efficient in the discharge of his duties, and he stood high in the estimation of his employers. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of Harmony lodge of Masons.

LOWER RATES ON LUMBER.—The Oregon Railway & Navigation company yesterday issued a special rough lumber tariff to take effect over their entire rail system. The principal points interested are Walla Walla, Blue Mountain, Wettsburg, Dayton, Pendleton and Centerville, to which places the new rate is 15 cents per hundred in car load lots, a reduction of 33 to 50 per cent. Under the old tariff the rate to Walla Walla was 24 cents, to Dayton 30 cents, to Pendleton 25 cents per hundred. The rate on dressed lumber, lath, shingles, etc., was cut 25 per cent. The new rates were made at the earnest solicitation of mill owners in this city, and it is believed can not help but stimulate the lumber trade with the cities and towns of eastern Oregon and Washington.

BURGLARY.—About 12 o'clock Sunday night, the residence of Jasper Fuller, corner of Twenty-second and L streets, was entered by a burglar who came in through an open window. He made his way to Mr. Fuller's bedroom and took $6 in silver from his trousers' pocket. Then he made a careful and probably a leisurely examination of the premises, opening closets, bureau drawers and cupboards, and strolled on to the room in which Fuller was locked. It happened to contain seven $20 gold pieces and these it took. No doubt encouraged by his success, he returned to examine the bed in which Mr. Fuller and his wife were sleeping, for further plunder. This awakened Mrs. Fuller who screamed, and the midnight intruder disappeared hastily.

WILL HOLD A MEETING.—There are, it is said, about 300 people in Washington county alone who have been making regular payments upon the unearned lands of the Oregon & California Railroad company, said lands now being declared forfeited. The people are wanting their money back, which has been paid in sums ranging from $50 to $500. A large number have paid in full and are ready for their deeds. A meeting is to be held at Forest Grove next week, for the purpose of agreeing upon a plan of procedure, in case the company persistently refuse to refund the money, which it now unlawfully holds. The meeting will be an enthusiastic one, as a large attendance is expected. But little notice will be given as to the time.

DID NOT KNOW IT WAS ILLEGAL.—The Benedictine monks at Mt. Angel, whose distillery was closed by Collector Whiteaker a short time since, have made application to the collector of internal revenue for a compromise of the case. They claim that they being foreigners did not know that it was contrary to law to distil liquor for their own use. They had two stills at work making apple jack, or apple brandy. It is a very good article, and a sample of their manufacture tested by the commissioner, is 15 per cent above proof. It tastes as if it would burn a hole through an iron pot, but age will tone it down; and when this stuff has been stored away in the "archives" of the monastry for a score or so of years it might be pretty fair tipple.

GOING TO PANAMA.—Wong Sing, a Chinese merchant of Victoria, arrived here yesterday and left this morning for New York, with the intention of going down to the Isthmus of Panama to engage in business. He says that there are quite a number of Chinamen employed on the works and they of course prefer to deal with one of their own countrymen, and the Spanish Americans also prefer to deal with the Chinese. He figures on the work lasting for ten years and hopes by that time to have made a fortune. Perhaps he may, as the Chinese can stand the unhealthy climate there better than the Caucasian, but he will be in luck if the land crabs do not have the picking of his bones before ten years are out.

THEATRICAL CIRCUIT SCHEME.—When the Madison Square company came here from the South, Seattle was skipped, owing to the inability of the visitors to agree upon terms with Mr. George F. Frye, manager of the new and handsome opera house bearing his name. J. P. Howe, manager of the New Market, went over to Seattle last week, and a conference between him, Mr. Frye and Mr. Randall of the Madison Square company resulted in a mutually satisfactory arrangement, by which the Madison Square company will appear at Frye's opera house next Friday and Saturday; and there was a complete understanding relative to the future movements of combinations over the Victoria and sound circuits.

WILL LIKELY HAVE TWO MORE OPPONENTS.—Will Curry is likely to have an opportunity to win another $200 on the diamond badge. A match with M. F. Spencer is being arranged and Robinson, of Seattle, is going to have a chance at the badge. He wishes to shoot next Sunday, but Curry would prefer Saturday, as he is due at the beach every Sunday for the present month.

REDUCED RATES ON FRUIT.—Yesterday the Oregon Railway & Navigation company and the Northern Pacific put into effect a new tariff on melons, tomatoes and green fruit between Portland and all points on the Northern Pacific as far east as the Missouri river. The rate in car load lots, straight or mixed, is $1 25 per hundred, a reduction of about 33 per cent. For less than car load lots the rate is $2 per hundred to all points west of Bozeman, and to points east of Bozeman from $2 52 to $2 85. In other words, instead of being classified as first-class freight, fruit will go as third-class. The new rates will hold good until December 31, 1885.

IMMENSE CROWDS AT THE COAST.—Persons who returned from the seaside yesterday report that the number of visitors at the Seas de house and at Grimes' was greater on Saturday and Sunday than ever before. At the Seaside house 190 were accommodated, cots being made up in the parlor and every available place. A large number, however, came away on Sunday evening and left accommodation for new comers. At no time in the history of this country were there so many people at North Beach. Summer travel to Victoria and Puget sound points has been remarkably light this season, and it is not likely to improve.

TURNED HIS FAMILY OUT OF DOORS.—Peter Kane, a blockmaker residing at No. 467 Seventh street, came home last night full of cheap whisky and turned his wife and children out of doors. The neighbors took in the little ones, one of whom was sick, and Mrs. Kane applied to the police, who were not able to afford any relief, as Kane had possession of the fort and was bound to hold it. He must be a nice man for a small tea party. If he repeats his performance of last night the neighbors ought to take him in hand and teach him to behave himself.

THE FRUIT SUPPLY.—The market was well supplied with Oregon peaches yesterday. They were of good size and quality and retailed at 75 cents per box of twenty pounds. The first big lot of Italian prunes was received yesterday. They were very fine, and sold at retail for two cents per pound. Watermelons are coming in from The Dalles in great quantities. They are of large size, some weighing forty pounds. Pears, plums and apples are plenty and cheap, and housekeepers who do not have plenty of canned and preserved fruit for winter will have only themselves to blame.

W. C. T. U.—At the W. C. T. U. meeting, yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Chaplain Stubbs gave a very favorable account of the labors of Mrs. Harrison, the English gospel temperance evangelist, whom she had met at Seattle. It is greatly desired that she should come to Portland, and a committee was appointed to personally solicit the hearty co-operation of the Portland pastors of churches. It was resolved to supply ice for a water barrel, if the Y. M. C. A. will place one outside its building, for one month, Mrs. J. L. Johnston being appointed to collect money for and purchase the ice.

ARM BROKEN.—As E. Thayer, foreman of Engine Company No. 3, was driving down toward St. Johns, Sunday, accompanied by his wife, a fence rail fell down a bank by the roadside and scared a hog out of the brush. The hog scared the horse and Mrs. Thayer was thrown out of the carriage and had her arm broken. Thayer will visit that place again soon and endeavor to find the rail and the hog and just wear them out on each other.

SUIT UNDER THE NEW LIEN LAW.—George Ainslie & Co. began suit yesterday against James Loynachan, Mrs. Bertha Cohn, Thompson, DeHart & Co. and J. C. Bayer to recover $83 for lumber furnished the first named defendant, which was used in constructing a dwelling for Mrs. Cohn. The three defendants last named are under the law, drawn into the suit. This is the first case in Multnomah county under the new mechanics' lien law.

FINE PRAIRIE CHICKENS.—Sportsmen who tire of shooting grouse and pheasants had better take a trip to Umatilla county and try their luck with the prairie chickens, which are plentiful there now. It is no trouble at all to shoot them as even Jackson, of the East Oregonian, can kill some, as evidence of which he sent down to this office a box full yesterday which arrived in fine condition and were much enjoyed by the recipients.

FIRST OF THE GRAIN FLEET.—The British ship Nagpore, from Port Moody in ballast, arrived in yesterday. She is the first of the grain fleet of this season, and her arrival is a very pleasant thing for the longshoremen, who have been idle for some time. The harbor has looked rather lonesome of late, and the arrival of the wheat fleet will be welcomed by all.

RUES FOR UNDERTAKER'S BILLS.—Yesterday Capt. H. Cooke began suit in the state circuit against H. L. Murton and F. Page-Tustin, executors of the estate of Stephen Murton, deceased, for $62 50. The amount, plaintiff alleges, is due for services in burying two of the deceased's children; one November 28, 1878, the other December 12 of the same year.

SEASIDE MAILS.—At last the trials and tribulations of seasiders relative to mails is at an end. Capt. Tuttle has ordered through pouches to be put up for Ilwaco and Sea Side postoffices, so that letters dropped in the office before 10 P. M. or the boxes before 9, will go through the following evening direct.

ACCIDENTS AT CLATSOP.—Miss Lottie Stout, while attending a party at Grimes', Saturday evening, sprained her ankle rather badly, and will be obliged to keep her couch for a week or so. It was not Miss Gertie Pennoyer who broke her arm a few days since, but a younger sister, about 8 years old.

SALES BY THE SHERIFF.—Yesterday, the kiln of 45,000 brick offered for sale by the sheriff was bought by O. F. Paxton for $1000. The lease old interest of E. Gratton's carriage shop, corner of Fourth and Ash, was bought by James Seed for $761. Tools and other effects sold for $116.

OPEN AIR CONCERTS.—The Dispatch band contemplate a series of concerts on the plaza, due notice of which will be given. They performed last Saturday at the same place, the exercises being confined to music suitable for the day.

The WEEKLY and SUNDAY OREGONIAN—Read in another column the highly favorable terms on which these two papers are offered.

BRIEF MENTION.

The Columbia crossed to sea at noon yesterday.

The State of California arrived here at 6 o'clock last night.

The government snag puller has worked down the Willamette as far as Corvallis.

A surveying party will be sent to Priest's rapids in a few days to make a preliminary examination.

The butcher shop of G. Dach was closed yesterday on an attachment suit brought by O'Shea Bros. for $343 82.

Mrs. O'Brien, a patient at the Good Samaritan hospital, recently became violently insane and had to be taken to the county jail. Yesterday afternoon she was taken to the state asylum.

The boat race announced for last night between crews of the Willamette club did not take place on account of the absence from the city of one of the oarsmen. It will probably be rowed late this week.

Quite a number of young ladies were seen on the streets yesterday wearing sunflowers as big as soup-plates on their bosoms. Some one remarked that the spectacle put him in mind of Billy Ashcroft's song, "I Feel Just as Happy as a Big Sunflower."

PORTLAND PEOPLE INTERESTED.

The August number of the Northwest Illustrated Monthly Magazine of St. Paul has just come to hand. It is replete with interesting and elegant engravings and serves to show to advantage the grand resources and developments of that prosperous territory. This is the third number published since the starting out of E. V. Smalley with his corps of artists across the continent from St. Paul to Puget Sound, the two previous numbers being devoted to Minnesota and Dakota respectively. The next number, (September) of the magazine will contain handsome illustrations of the principal cities of Washington territory with descriptive articles of its resources. The October number (and this is where Portland people are interested) will be entirely devoted to the illustrating of Portland and her suburbs with well written descriptive articles of our resources, vast tributary country and advantages as the commercial centre of the Pacific Northwest. The October number, which will be elevated to Portland, a well known Portland journalist, thoroughly conversant with Oregon interests has been engaged to write the article, which is a guarantee that our interests will be fairly presented. The artists are now at work making sketches of Portland, and Mr. T. F. Kane, the business manager of the magazine, is at work among our citizens securing the requisite patronage to enable him to make such a showing as Portland deserves. It is hoped that the people liberality will be shown by our leading citizens toward the enterprise, as it will give Oregon, and Portland in particular, the widest and most valuable advertising in the eastern and middle states that has ever before been attempted.

The Northern Pacific railroad has contracted to take 11,000 copies of this number for free distribution in the East, which, with the extra copies taken here, and the regular circulation of the magazine will swell the issue to over 30,000.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

Inquiries about the Road Answered—Something about the Old Financial Troubles—Yaquina Bay.

The reporter of this paper, who rode over the line of the Oregon Pacific railroad from Corvallis to Yaquina a few days since, has been asked a great many questions since his return, which go to show that the public are no better informed in regard to that line of road than the reporter was before he had seen it. One of the questions most frequently asked is, "What kind of a road is it?"

Well, it is just a plain, ordinary railroad. The track is of steel rails of the best quality, with the exception of five miles near this end, which were laid with small iron. The steel rails to replace them are on hand, and will be down in a few days after the burned tunnel is reopened. Then the road will be just as good as any similar length of road in the country.

"What was the cause of the trouble last winter, and how came the tunnel to be burned?"

Up to last September the company had paid cash down for everything. They had all arrangements made for securing the money necessary to carry on the work. But owing to general depression in financial matters throughout the country these arrangements failed. It then became necessary to seek for the money in other quarters, and in order to secure it, it was imperative that the work on the road should not be suspended. So the work was carried on and supplies bought on credit. Just as the road was being completed the great storm of last winter came on and caused delay and great extra expense. Then a flood in Mary's river washed away a lot of bridges, and the opening of the road was indefinitely postponed, and the procuring of the desired money in consequence delayed. The creditors of the road became clamorous for their money and a deal of trouble ensued, and some miscreant set fire to the timbers in tunnel No. 2, and put back the opening of the road further than ever.

"Well," says another, "will the road ever be completed?"

It is completed to Corvallis and $2,000,000 have been expended on it. The parties who have expended that amount and conquered so many difficulties are not likely to stop at that, but will most certainly carry out their plans to completion. The road will doubtless soon be extended to a connection with the east side road and eventually to its destination at Boise City, where it is said it will connect with a road from the East and form another transcontinental line.

"Is there any place at Yaquina to build a city?"

"Yes. There is a shallow cove at Yaquina City which can be piled or filled to give room for quite a town, and behind that is the whole continent. There is not much level land, but Yaquina is probably a much more promising looking site for a city than was the place on which Portland stood forty years ago."

"Is Yaquina bay is a good harbor?"

"The bay is only about three miles long and two wide, and a large part of it is occupied by sand banks, but there is a deep channel up to Yaquina City where is a roadstead, well sheltered and wider and deeper than the river at Portland, to which a ship can be towed from the open sea in half an hour or less. How about the bar? It is hoped that the breakwater, now partially completed, will improve the bar so that the largest ships can enter safely. The depth of water has already been increased, and there is no doubt that a good entrance can be made.

NOTES FROM NORTH BEACH.

NORTH BEACH, Aug. 9.

There were fully 200 in bathing at one time yesterday.

Life at the seaside is now at its best. It is the hight of the season.

Many were compelled to sleep in Stott's barn last night, owing to lack of accommodations.

Over 300 people came down on the Lurline alone, having taken advantage of the special Friday night trip. A large number also arrived last night from the Saturday boats, and still another will arrive this morning.

Fishing continues good. The other day a gentleman got over eighty crabs at the wreck of the Harvest Home, about five miles up the beach. The clams are not quite so numerous. Several deer have been killed near camp lately, and partridges and snipe suffer daily.

The weather continues warm, though not unpleasant. The nights are cool. Camp fires are all the rage in the evenings, and the passer-by is greeted with selections from "Il Trovatore," "Hillee Taylor," gospel songs, negro melodies, etc., which combine to make an evening pass away very pleasantly.

The following persons have registered at the Sea View house since the 1st inst.: J. C. Tall, San Francisco; W. S. Lombard, Warren S. White, J. G. Pope and wife, George H. Andrews, Eva M. Waite, Libbie M. Dickinson, Charles Ford, wife and two children, Portland; J. P. Betts, Astoria; W. T. Collett, Bert C. Allen, Skipanon; J. B. Condon and wife, Mrs. W. L. Weatherred, Miss Mary Tompkins, The Dalles; E. M. Marion, Miss Schlussel, Astoria; Miss Blanche Kahn, Miss Bertha Kaufman, Seymour Friendley, Portland; T. B. Wintler, Vancouver; Edward Cookingham, W. Palmer, Dead Man's Hollow; H. W. Savage, wife and child, Salem, J. C. Blake, Hong Kong; F. Hemenway, Topeka; F. Brooks, Vancouver; H. Rinehart, J. A. Brumsey, wife and servant, New York; W. L. Lenhart, James S. Reed, E. G. Harvey, Tena Snow, Sam J. Gorman, L. Russel, F. H. Page, W. A. Lee, Frank Newton, W. H. Grenfell and wife, Dr. F. Gately, John Holman, wife and child, Portland.

Dances are held at Long Beach twice a week, Wednesdays and Fridays. Lately the hall has been too small to hold the crowd.

Mr. E. Partridge has succeeded in taking some very fine photos of groups at the "Rocks" and along shore. Being taken instantaneously they exhibit the beating surf in fine style.

Mr. S. M. Mears, of the U. C. & R. T. Co., lately brought over a carriage and four horses from Portland, and lets it to parties every day for drives on the beach. It is a great accommodation and "a long felt want."

Services are being held to-day at the hotel by Dr. At

COMMERCIAL.

MONDAY, Aug. 10.

Overland receipts, include 10 cs codfish, 503 bxs nails, 127 pkgs tobacco.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS.—Since last report:—3622 ctls wheat, 1443 bbls flour, 2556 ctls oats, 100 ctls bran, 400 ctls mid stuff, 20 sks potatoes, 6325 lbs wool, 772 lbs hides, 137 cs eggs, 768 boxes fruit, 4 cs butter, 24 ctls melons. Also 11,801 ctls wheat, 491 ctls oats, 26,000 lbs wool, 5440 lbs hides, 30 bxs fruit, 1257 melons from the eastern section.

EXPORTS.—Per str Columbia to San Francisco: 13,335 ctls wheat, 414 hf sks flour, 85 sks flax seed, 2463 ctls oats, 1600 ctls bran, 17,246 lbs wool, 32 cs eggs, 1600 bdls lath, 3 cs cassimeres, 1 cs flannels, 1 bl blankets, 2 cs dried prunes, 2 hf bbls salmon, 5 bbls beef, 41,250 ft hard wood lumber, 23 dry 18 green hides, 9 bls pelts, 8 bls calfskins, 3 bls sheep skins, $30,620 treasure.

FREIGHTS.—The Br ship Nagpore, 1209 tons, came in to-day under prior charter for wheat by Gibson, Quackenbush & Co. Two vessels are added to the list on the way, swelling it to 31,650 registered tons. Others are reported en route, probably enough to make the list 45,000 tons. In futures some business is constantly passing, the quoted rate for iron still being 45s 3d October arrival. The later on there is no disposition to charter and tonnage asks more.

WHEAT.—Foreign advices are of a firmer character, but New York and Chicago lost strength during the day. San Francisco continues inactive. Receipts here are fair, but are not increasing. The outgoing steamer carried nearly 700 tons of wheat, and the line has so far taken all offered. San Francisco operators have had their attention drawn this way, their own market being in a position to make buying next to impossible, and there is a fair prospect that considerable will be taken here for California account. At Walla Walla sellers show no disposition to accept offerings about equal to 81 15 here, but Portland buyers have evidently done better in the way of purchasing than Walla Walla firms. The market to-day shows nothing of new interest, 81 12½ and 81 22½ being quoted. More than this is considered impossible at this time.

OATS.—Receipts fair but not excessive as a good local or for San Francisco account. The quotation is for best feed in 25@26c more being had only for extra choice in a small way. Poor grades find no favor.

MILLSTUFF.—Receipts include 200 ctls for Puget Sound. The market is slow and unprofitable.

FLOUR.—Large receipts noted to-day and mostly for agents account. The market rules quiet without change.

POTATOES.—In free receipt and weak at 50c per sack. Dealers find a light trade.

FRUITS, ETC.—Receipts include one car pears and plums for Chicago from Salem. The local market is fully supplied with all seasonable sorts, prices ruling weak. Peaches 65@75c for the best logal. Apples 50c. Melons in large receipt. Tonight's California steamer will throw a large quantity on the market to-morrow.

CHICKENS.—Short supplies Saturday caused a slight advance but to-day the market is weaker and large cannot be quoted beyond $@$4.

EGGS.—Receipts have fallen away which brings about light stocks and butter values. To-day 20c is quoted but larger arrivals would soon be felt.

ASSOCIATED PRESS MARKETS.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Governments, quiet and strong. Stocks, at opening prices this morning, were generally a small fraction higher than closing quotations Friday, but in early dealings there was a general decline of ¼ to ⅞ per cent, which was checked before midday, and between noon and 1 o'clock the whole list advanced materially. Later the market became less active and steady, and near the close yielded a fraction. Mr. Robert Garrett has been quoted as stating to-day that there was not a word of truth in the stories of an agreement between the Western Union and the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph companies.

The Mail and Express says: Mining shares are very quiet. Alta at 45, Horn Silver 2 and Navajo 80 were among the few shares dealt in to-day.

MARK LANE REVIEW.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Mark Lane Express, in its review of the British grain trade during the past week, says: The average temperature has been cooler than the preceding week. There have been thunder storms in the greater part of the kingdom, and the nights have been cold. These conditions have checked the premature ripening of crops, and harvesting therefore has been slower. Sales of English wheat during the week were 38,070 quarters, at 33 shillings, against 29,256 quarters, at 31s 6d during the corresponding week last year. Trade in foreign wheat is colorless. Sellers are firm, and buyers few and restricted in their purchases. Demands for parcels off coast have been trivial. Nine cargoes arrived, two cargoes were sold, four were withdrawn and five remained, including one Californian. Thirty-seven cargoes are due. The market to-day was very quiet. Values in wheat were steady. Flour was firm. Corn was firm, barley was quiet, oats were 3d cheaper, and beans and peas were 6d cheaper.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Br iron ship MacDhiarmida, 1360 tons, comes to this port from Australia.

Br wooden ship Josie Troop, 1068 tons, comes to this port from Hiogo.

Sailing dates of Br barks Director and Duriadeer are to-day reported.

Br iron ship Nagpore, six days from Port Moody in ballast, arrived in to-day, consigned to John Reid & Co. The Nagpore enjoys what honor there may be in being the first arrival of the 1885-86 grain fleet.

The O. R. & N. Co. are to-day credited with making a very generous proposition to the citizens, and especially taxpayers, of this city. The cost of dredging bars in the Columbia so that a depth of twenty feet may be had is estimated at $8000. The company have offered to donate one-half this sum. In more than one sense this is a generous offer. With only seventeen feet of water the company would enjoy a no contemptible profit from lighterage this fall. With this only feet it will get little business in this way. For their own steamers eighteen feet is quite enough water. A steam collier will have to be employed in the work, and as the company own none of this class of boats no part of the $4000 will return to them as profit in the work. The first of the wheat fleet is now in the river. Others are near at hand. The proposition referred to will probably be handed the board of trade and acted upon before this paragraph is printed. The sum of $4000 is wanted and wanted bad. It can easily be raised.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

The Trade Depression in Great Britain.

STEADY ADVANCE OF CHOLERA.

The Work of Fortifying Herat Goes Rapidly Forward—The Revolutions in South America—Notes from the City of Mexico.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Lord Iddesleigh, first lord of the treasury, moved in the house of lords this afternoon that the peers approve the proposed appointment of a commission to inquire into the cause of the present depression in the British trade. He said the proposed commission intended to ascertain, if possible, what were the actual facts relating to this depression, and to inquire into its causes, and to report its findings to parliament, with out formulating any trade policy. The commiss on would be composed of men best able to make the desired inquiries. There had been great complaint concerning the depression in British trade in recent years, and he hoped the lords would sanction the appointment of this commission.

Earl Granville opposed the appointment of the proposed commission, reiterating his argument that by appointing it the government would encourage the public in a false belief that parliament could by legislation remedy the evil complained of.

LONDON COMMENT ON THE GRANT FUNERAL.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—All the morning newspapers to-day publish copious accounts of the funeral of Grant. All are agreed that the outpouring of people on the occasion and their deep grief indicated by dispatches were something wonderful. The Times has a special dispatch three columns long, detailing scenes and incidents of the funeral, and also runs a leading editorial praising and recalling many personal traits of the dead general. It expresses unbounded admiration for the conduct of the American people concerning the burial of Gen. Grant, and pronounces the funeral "a spontaneous outburst of national admiration and gratitude."

A VESSEL FROM PORTLAND DAMAGED.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—At Liverpool last evening the British bark Cambrian, from Portland, Oregon, came in collision with the British ship Elizabeth Nicholson, from Manilla. Both vessels were badly damaged.

AMERICAN SHIP SCUTTLED.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The American ship Phineas Pendleton, for New York, which took fire at Manilla on August 7, has been scuttled as the only means of extinguishing the flames.

MR. RUSKIN'S SUCCESSOR.

Mr. Herkomer has been elected professor of fine arts at Oxford university. He succeeds Mr. Ruskin, who is ill.

BE "FELD THE UPPER HAND."

A Member of Parliament makes a Daring Threat in the Commons.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A cable special to the Sun from London says: Some days ago Philip Callan, member from Louth, while debating a clause in the criminal law amendment bill, called attention to informities which had been dragged to light during the trial of Madam Jeffries, and mentioned among other things, the high station in life occupied by some of that notorious woman's chief patrons. He was several times interrupted when he reached that part of his remarks, and there was an evident purpose on the part of certain members to either lessen the force of the speaker, or force him to abandon his subject and resume his seat. Becoming exasperated, Mr. Callan finally turned to his adversaries, and shaking his finger, shouted:

"Don't provoke me further! I know some of Madame Jeffries' patrons, and if this clamor continues I shall be compelled to say things you will regret to hear probably more than I shall desire to give utterance to them. I trust that I shall not be driven to say more."

The house was stilled in a moment and Callan was subjected to no further interruption. The interruption of which Callan complained was possessed was obtained a few days previous to the episode in the house, when he brought into the lobby of the house of commons a man who acted in the capacity of hair porter for Madame Jeffries, when the husbandry of that now notorious woman was at its height, with a view of securing his identification of such members as frequented the house in which he was formerly employed. The porter upon being introduced in the lobby and seeing familiar faces about him exclaimed:

"For God's sake take me away from here! I recognize scores of men whom I have admitted into Mme Jeffries's house."

When Callan pointed them out he did so. Callan's recent remarks in the house have not received respectful attention, they have at least been free from interruption or audible comment, and he openly threatens to unload the full volume of his information—the fruit of personal investigation—the first time he receives provocation.

THE AFGHAN DISPUTE.

NOTES FROM THE FRONT.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Afghan boundary commission are nine miles west of Herat, having mules and camels. A letter from Asiabad has the following: The Russian railway to this place will be completed in September. Several talsdars busily engaged in buying grain. Since the depression in Akhalekho territory 4000 Russians have died from the effects of the climate upon them.

AFFAIRS AT HERAT.

TEHERAN, Persia, Aug. 10.—A letter received here from Herat, dated July 30 last, states that 2000 men are engaged constantly in the day in repairing forts and erecting great bastions. The writer asserts that there is great enthusiasm among the citizens, and a determined resolution to defend the city from Russian attack.

WAR NEWS FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Persia is engaging German officers to organize her army. Russia is building hurriedly a strategical railway to the Austrian frontier.

AUSTRIA.

THE FEARS OF DESPOTISM.

VIENNA, Aug. 10.—Extensive preparations are being made for the meeting of the czar and emperor of Austria, which will take place shortly at Kremsier. The cost of the decorations and other arrangements for the meeting will reach one million florens. The greatest efforts are being put forth by the authorities to prevent any attempt being made on the life of either of the potentates. Hundreds of the most experienced and trusted police men and detectives have been drafted here for service at the town. Precautions have already been taken to prevent the coming of any portion of the town, and great care has been taken in regard to the transportation of dynamite and other explosive materials. All parcels and boxes destined for Kremsier are carefully examined before being permitted to be sent to the town. The names and occupations of all the lodgers and of all the strangers arriving at the town are ordered to be furnished to the police authorities by persons who let hotels and lodging houses. No persons will be admitted to town after the 20th instant without a special permission.

SPAIN.

CHOLERA AT GIBRALTAR.

GIBRALTAR, Aug. 10.—A person leaving died here to-day from a malady which the physicians of the Spanish author ties promptly instituted a hard condon, barring Gibraltar from communication with contagious Spanish territory. This action is proving a source of much annoyance to many persons in Gibraltar, whose families live in adjacent villages which they cannot reach under the new arrangement.

A FRIGHTFUL STATE OF AFFAIRS.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—Granada is to-day in the most deplorable condition, from the result of the ravages of cholera. The state of affairs is really worse than it was in the place last year during the cholera epidemic in that city. There are no doctors now in Granada, and the dead bodies of cholera victims lie unburied in the streets.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—There were 4171 new cases of cholera and 1011 deaths reported yesterday throughout Spain.

FRANCE.

THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Reports from Marseilles, received to-day, show that the weather is again very warm and that cholera is increasing to such an extent that the hospitals have been opened for the reception of patients suffering from this disease.

Reports from Toulon say that two deaths from cholera occurred there and several new cases are reported.

MARSEILLES Aug. 10.—There were 300 deaths from cholera during the past week.

MURDERERS EXECUTED.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Marchandon and Gascard, murderers, were executed this morning in the presence of an immense crowd. It was a degrading spectacle.

NOT AFRAID OF CHOLERA.

TOULON, Aug. 10.—The sanitary conditions of this city is excellent, and it is not believed that the cholera will prevail.

MEXICO.

ITEMS FROM THE CAPITAL.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 10.—On Saturday night a Spaniard named Gabriel, while drunk, ran amuck, stabbing several citizens and two policemen, and fatally wounding a retired colonel. The assassin was captured by police, after a desperate fight, in which he received a shot through the lungs.

A sensation has been caused in high social circles by the arrest of a lady implicated in a former conspiracy against the government. Papers implicating her were found on the person of the wife of a rebel leader on the Pacific coast. The affair was five years old, and the lady has been released. It is reported that several high ecclesiastics were originally parties to the conspiracy.

THE WEST INDIES.

AMERICANS PLACED IN IRONS.

HAVANA, Aug. 10.—Advices from Hayti to July 15 say that three American sailors were arrested and imprisoned for an attempt to steal. The American consul has demanded that they be taken out of irons, and hopes to secure an indemnity.

REVOLUTION ENDED.

HAVANA, Aug. 10.—An English mail steamer which arrived here to-day brought the following advices: The revolution in Venezuela was ended on the 19th of July. President Crespo has issued a proclamation announcing the re-establishing of peace.

CHINA.

CHRISTIANS KILLED BY BLACK FLAGS.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—The minister of marine has received an official dispatch from Tonquin, stating that the Black Flags had raided five missionary stations and completely destroyed them, killing many Christians. Eight thousand of the followers of the missionaries have taken refuge with French troops.

THE SOUDAN.

REBELS REPULSED, WITH HEAVY LOSS.

CAIRO, Aug. 10.—Major Chermside telegraphs that the rebels in July attacked A garden fifty miles east of Kassala, and were repulsed with a loss of seven sheikhs and 300 men. The Kassala garrison is famishing.

KING JOHN SENDS HELP.

SUAKIM, Aug. 10.—A force of Abyssinian troops, sent by King Johnn, has relieved the garrison of 4000 at Gurrie, south of Kassala.

SOUTH AMERICA.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

VALPARAISO, (Via Galveston), Aug. 10.—The boilers of the steamer Paquite De Los Velos exploded while she was on a voyage from Coquimbo to Valparaiso, killing five persons and wounding six others.

THE REBELLION IN PERU.

LIMA (Via Galveston), Aug. 10.—Advices from the center of Peru say that Caceres has massed Montaneros at Jauj.

Death Rate of War.

Medical Record.

It has a truism that in war disease kills more than the bullet. The detailed facts showing this, however, in case of our own war are of special interest. The states and territories contributed to the army of the Union 3,500,000 men. Of these, during the four years of war, there were killed in action 67,030, or 2.83 per cent.; the rate of wounds 43,000, or 1.85 per cent., making a total of deaths from violence 110,030, or 4.73 per cent. On the other hand there died from disease 224,586, or 9.68 per cent., disease being thus twice as fatal as the bullet. The total mortality among Union soldiers during the war would be 334,616, or 14.41 per hundred of those engaged. Thus over fourteen out of every 100 soldiers died in the four years' war. This is an enormous death rate, but figures are often misused, and they do not accurately indicate the mortality rightly attributable to the war. The ordinary death rate among male adults is about nine per 1000 annually in this country. During the four years of the war there would have occurred under any circumstances among the 3,500,000 about 126,000 deaths, leaving, therefore, only somewhat over 200,000 deaths attributable to the war. To put it in a general way, instead of four men who would have died in the natural course of events, five out of every 100 died in the course of the war. The death rate from bullets is only a little greater than the death rate in civil life, but the soldier has added the enormous risks from disease.

Mr. Cleveland Has Become Virtuous.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Some time ago a man named Brewer was appointed postmaster of Portage, Wis. Pending his filing a bond and receiving a commission, it was complained of him that his politics was not the same up to the high mark set by Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Brewer is a politician. Besides being a politician and a good fellow generally, he seems also to be a man of a good deal of spirit, for when he heard of the charge against him he promptly asserted that, woman-like, by the postmaster-general received a touching letter from Brewer resigning the postoffice. He said he had chosen to marry a woman who pleased him. If that was an offense to his fellow-townsmen he did not wish to be held up to them as a public official, and could make a living for himself and bride without a postoffice.

DIGESTIVE DISTRESS

affects seriously all the digestive and assimilative organs, including the Kidneys. When these organs are so affected they fail to extract from the blood the uric acid, which, carried through the circulation, causes Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

The functions of the Liver are also affected by costiveness, causing Bilious Disorders.

Among the warning symptoms of Biliousness are Nausea, Dizziness, Headache, Weakness, Fever, Dimness of Vision, Yellowness of Skin, Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulders, Foul Mouth, Furred Tongue, Irregularity in the action of the Bowels, Vomiting, etc.

The Stomach suffers when the bowels are constipated, and Indigestion or follows. Fetid Breath, Gastric Pains, Headache, Acidity of the Stomach, Waterbrash, Nervousness, and Depression, are all evidences of the presence of this distressing malady. A Safe Relief for irregularities of the Stomach and all consequent diseases, will be found in the use of AYER'S PILLS.

They stimulate the stomach, free the bowels, healthfully invigorate the torpid liver and kidneys, and by their cleansing, healing and tonic properties, strengthen and purify the whole system, and restore it to a salutary and normal condition.
